

Geography: History and Concepts (4th Revised edition)

By Arild Holt-Jensen

SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Geography: History and Concepts (4th Revised edition), Arild Holt-Jensen, Now in a fourth edition, this standard student reference has been totally revised and updated. It remains the definitive introduction to the history, philosophy, and methodology of human geography; now including a detailed explanation of key ideas in human geography's post-modernist and post-structuralist 'turns'. The book is organized into six sections: * What is Geography?: an introduction to the discipline, and a discussion of its organization and basic research approaches, informed by the question 'what difference does it make to think geographically?' * Foundations of Geography: an examination of geography from Antiquity to the 1950s, with a special focus on human?environment relations * Geography 1950-1980: a critical review of the development of geography as a spatial science * Paradigms and Revolutions: an analysis of paradigm shifts in geography, that introduces students to key debates in the philosophy of science * Positivism and its Critics: a detailed discussion of positivism, critical theory, humanistic geography, behavioural geography, and structuralism * New Trends and Ideas developing critical responses: structuration theory, realism, post-structuralism, post-modernism, feminism and actor-network theory. It also explores new research tools, such as...

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
