Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Willard s Historic Guide: Guide to the Temple of Time; And Universal History for Schools In offering to the public this book, with its companion the Temple of Time, the author cannot bring her mind to frame an apology; because she is soberly impressed with a belief, that she is rendering a service to the cause of educational science. The object of aiding the young teacher, as well as of assisting the pupil, has brought into it, much of the experience of thirty years devoted to instructing, as well as of long and matured reflection, on the special subject of educational history. And in no way does the author conceive that she could better serve her country, than in awakening a taste for history, and putting its grand outline more within the power of universal acquisition, in every common school, throughout our wide republic. This, if it stands, must remain by avoiding the rocks, upon which all former republics have foundered. History must make them known; and not merely to here and there a solitary statesman. We the people must have an enlightened will; or power with us, may, like a steam-engine on a wrong track, carry destruction in its course. And if the people are to understand history, then it must be taught in the people s schools. The method of pointer-teaching is here circumstantially explained; not only according to long experience and the examination of different schools in our own country, but with an attention to what has, in this respect, been done abroad. This method has, besides the eminent advantage of impression by the eye, an immense multiplying power over that great...
