Beau to Beau Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Nightvine, an amuse bouche of short, dark stories including the tale of an elderly woman who goes shopping for cat food, an Army Company with a rash of AWOL s, and the story of a nurse who shares a plant with special patients. These pieces are for fans of the macabre in this homage to The Twilight Zone, Tales of the Crypt, Night Gallery and the work of Charles Addams. The stories in this collection are for lovers of horror and horror surprise, every day people in situations that do not always have an every day ending. Snippets from The Pride of Vera Lake Today Vera was forced to leave the house. The cats needed food. They were so hungry. If they were hungry, how could they protect her? They were all she had left. How Herbert had loved those cats! They were such a comfort now that he was no longer there to watch over her. She asked the clerk, I hate to bother you but would there happen to be anyone who would help me carry this home? I only live a few blocks away and I would be glad to pay for the time. Stepping into a large old fashioned kitchen, the clerk put the bag on a table in the center of the room. Although there was plenty of afternoon sunlight streaming through the windows, the room was just as spooky to the young woman as the much darker hallway had been. She started to turn when she heard a soft noise in the hallway behind her. Whirling, she saw nothing. Old lady, is that you? she finally called out. When...
